
Hard Days Night

Contributed by Administrator
Saturday, 05 September 2009
Last Updated Wednesday, 16 September 2009

$ 340 per night with Beatles. Fans the Beatles' hometown by visiting musicians, Liverpool, can now stay at the Hard Days Night Hotel, reminiscent of the famous four.

The hotel was opened more than 45 years after John Lennon, Paul McCartney, Ringo Starr and George Harrison conquered the hearts of the audience throughout the world. Among the 110 rooms is such suite named after John Lennon, which cost 1.3 thousand night. dollars. In the middle stands a white piano. However, in a room is dedicated to Paul McCartneyowi armor - after he has a knighthood, sir. The cheapest room costs $ 340 per night. Most of them hang paintings inspired by the history of the team. Beatles music resounds in the lobby, restaurants, and even in bathrooms. The hotel's lobby stands a jukebox such as the Beatles hit "Yellow Submarine" and the walls are decorated with rare group picture. - It was to me to keep a balance. We also want to welcome those who not particularly like the Beatles. And we are confident that it will be - said the project manager Jonathan.